Thereby helping defeat one another in wage wars. Moreover, the trade unions aid the employing class to mislead the workers into the belief that the working class has interests in common with their employers. These conditions can be changed only by the working class itself.

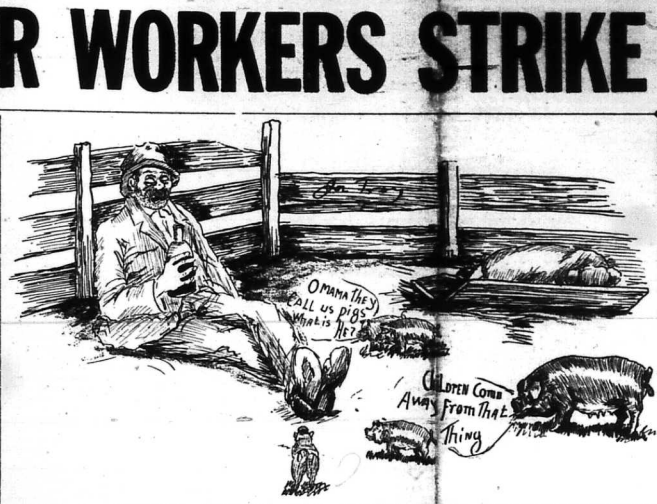

only by an organization formed in such a way that all its members in any one industry, or in all industries, if necessary, cease work whenever a strike or lockout is on in any department thereof, thus making an injury to one an injury to all. Instead of the conservative motto, "A fair day's wages for a fair day's work," we must inscribe on our banner the revolutionary watchword, "Abolition of the wage system." It is the historic mission of the working class to do away with capitalism. The army of production must be organized, not only for the every-day struggle with capitalism, but also to carry on production when capitalism shall have been overthrown. By organizing industrially we are forming the structure of the new society within the shell of the old.

S ANGELES CASE NEARS END
ellow Workers Bratland, White, Pugh and Kohn Testify for Defense.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 30.—Fellow worker Albin Bratland was today followed by F. W. White. A young fellow worker John Pugh, was testified on behalf of the defendants and gave a semi-annual of the activities and aims of the I. W. W. Fellow Worker Alfred Kohn is... We finish reading Eber's Theory and... If the prosecution has not much rebuttal argument will start this week, as some of the most important witnesses are subpoenaed out at the last moment, on account of the way the cross-examination has been conducted by the prosecution. Of late, over protest, Mr. Hill has been asking witnesses the same questions as those asked by the prosecution and as there are ways a bunch of stool-pigeons hanging around the courtroom, unless a man is fortunate enough to be ignorant of those things, he is either going to commit perjury, or call on the oil workers to join the fellow workers or go to jail for contempt of court.

STOCKTON, Cal., May 11.—Fellow Workers Bogart, Stuart and Higgins were arrested for picketing for the general strike. Officers McGlothen and Grantwood, near Market Center arrested the employees. When learning of the arrest, Fellow Workers Beck and Albers went out to the police station to interview Chief of Police W. L. Walker. The chief was not out to the desk until 10:30, and in the would be in shortly. He came in 15 minutes later. In discussing the case the chief was very courteous. When asked why pickets were arrested and vagrancy charges put upon them when they were arrested for their constitutional rights petitioning for the redress of their grievances. They are out in construction and lumber camps for the betterment of conditions and the release of political prisoners who are confined in prison. The chief said he had not investigated the case and that he did not want any violence.

NOT A GOOD WAY TO IMPROVE CONDITIONS

DELEGATE GIVES EXPERIENCES ORGANIZING STEEL WORKERS

Immediately after a session of the General Executive Board I was instructed to go down to the Mahoning Valley and do what I could to organize the steel workers there. Upon my arrival in the town of Warren, Ohio, I found, after looking over the field, that the following conditions prevailed in the valley and that a splendid opportunity presented itself for organization in the I. W. W. if we go about it in the proper way.

MAY 28 IS DATE SET FOR TRIAL KLAMATH WOBBS

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—There are six delegates and members of the I. W. W. coming up for trial, the first of them to be tried on May 28, or about that time. This is a famous old case. The men were arrested about a year ago when the I. W. W. hardly existed, in Southern Oregon. They were kept in jail for months, until late summer, and were of inestimable value to the organization there, for they wrote courtesies, about the graft and corruption of the Lumber Trust politics there, and they kept track of their own expense to the taxpayers. When it got too high, public opinion forced their release. Their trial has been postponed time after time, and probably will not be again put off.

WOBBS IN ROTTEN JAIL AT RAYMOND

RAYMOND, Wash.—There are about 12 men in the city jail here. The conditions are extremely bad. The Willapa Harbor Herald reporter who found conditions very rotten. He had trouble getting in the jail. When the chief found out that the reporter wanted to write up conditions, he demanded the names of the women who had been making complaints. The reporter refused, but after the sheriff was gone, the reporter looked through the window and talked with some of the men. The men had been in jail 24 hours without a bite to eat. The egg sandwiches they received, after that, were so rotten they had to be thrown away. The wood-work is gone from the cells and the men had to lean it down on cold nights and burn it on the concrete floor to keep warm. Saturday night the chief police was drunk, he goes on a periodical drunk, and was trying to raise a mob to run the Wobblies out of town.

By FRED TIFFANY

The wages are around 50 cents per hour for day laborers, while others work as high as 12 and 16 hours per day. In the bunkhouses we find bunk beds two high, and in the workers possess dormant minds, and are very courteous. When asked why pickets were arrested and vagrancy charges put upon them when they were arrested for their constitutional rights petitioning for the redress of their grievances. They are out in construction and lumber camps for the betterment of conditions and the release of political prisoners who are confined in prison. The chief said he had not investigated the case and that he did not want any violence.

WOBBS IN ROTTEN JAIL AT RAYMOND

The Chamber of Commerce is trying to boycott the I. W. W. There are only a few places where meals can be obtained, of which the sheriff blew up with dynamite the sheds some of the members were living in. The inmates were given only a few minutes to get out.

WOBBS IN ROTTEN JAIL AT RAYMOND

The Follower Worker Hiok delivered a good address to the workers of Raymond Sunday afternoon. The address was delivered on a couple of vacant lots. The need of education and of organization were both stressed.

WOBBS IN ROTTEN JAIL AT RAYMOND

There is one link here by the name of P. J. McMorris, formerly of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, who joined the I. W. W. in Spokane last November. His card was retained about the first of April. He was appointed chief of the first of April. He was appointed chief of the first of April. He was appointed chief of the first of April.

Today the authorities arrested three more fellow workers: Henry Powell, Polyan and... Up to the present time the bulls have allowed the fellow workers on a regular five days to the prisoners, but today they refused point blank to let anything be taken into the cells.

WOBBS IN ROTTEN JAIL AT RAYMOND

The city feeds the men with sandwiches without coffee, served by a restaurant whose proprietor is and has always been antagonistic to the I. W. W. The boys, fearing to be poisoned by such a dirty and ratty food, the jail in which they are taken some food and tobacco to the boys on the outside keep a night and day picket in the jail so that nothing happens to the men inside. They are forced to drink water from a hose, the end of which is continuously in the jail cell, and as there is no water in the jail, making it damp all the time. The boys in the jail are... Women in this town have complained to the authorities without results. Complainants have been made to the City Health Officer, who has paid no attention to them. Thursday, May 3, I appeared before the County Jail Officer, E. J. Tripp of South Bend, and he promised he would investigate.

Marine Transport Workers to Stay Off the Job; Other Sections to Decide

The strike committee of the Northwest branches of the I. W. W. has issued the following bulletin: Seattle District, May 7, 1923.
TAKE THE STRIKE BACK ON THE JOB
Fellow Workers: The I. W. W. does not believe in long drawn out strikes off the job. These exhaust the workers and eventually end by the workers losing all they have gained. The strike for the release of all Class-Way Prisoners has been transferred to the job by the vote of the membership. This change of tactics will be carrying the fight into the bosses' territory and the boss has forced to pay the expenses of the strike.
Monday, May 7, 1923, is the date set for the strike to be transferred on to the job.
(Signed) I. W. W. STRIKE COMMITTEE.

This applies to the Northwest District. Industrial unions in other localities, which are determining wages and job conditions in addition to the release of the Class-Way Prisoners, will determine in their own localities what conditions they will accept.

I. W. W. STILL STRIKING

The great I. W. W. general strike is still on. The committees again emphasize that it is the I. W. W. which will decide whether the strike shall be continued, and how it shall be fought out. The rumor about calling off the battle, so industriously spread by the capitalists, was answered Monday, May 7, by a suggestion from the general strike committee to increase the efficiency of the attack by striking on the job.
This is the old reliable I. W. W. plan of striking, and was the method by which victory was secured in 1917.
From all points accounts of the readiness with which the suggestion has been acted upon. In Spokane, Seattle, Portland, Eugene, Klamath Falls, Everett, Tacoma, the workers are back on the job not in most cases to work.
The threat of boycott of workers, the strike of the employers, the lock-out, did not materialize. The camps were too hard hit, the need for logs was too great to permit of any such actions except in isolated cases. The I. W. W. are at the point of production, and the movement was so swift and co-ordinated, simultaneously in fact, that the employers were again taken unaware.
Now begins the strike on the job.

STRIKE COMMITTEE CHECKS UP

The great general strike committee of the Northwest is engaged in checking up the records. The first is that membership is showing a remarkable increase. The second is that camps and districts that were deemed almost hopeless came out, in some cases, to a man.

IN SEATTLE DISTRICT

Men were joining the strike by squads up until the last day. Twenty-six men out of Wagoner on May 8. Wilson on May 8. Monday saw hardly a man around the I. W. W. hall. A considerable number of the camps had taken place. The boss by this time is just beginning to feel very uneasy.

FROM GRAY'S HARBOUR

Lated reports are that the prosecuting attorney will put Green, the gunman who murdered Fellow Worker William McKay, on trial, even though the coroner's jury did exonerate the killer. The prosecutor is reported as stating that the coroner's jury had no reason to interfere in the case, as it is perfectly obvious how the man came to his death. The jury was composed of class-conscious business and professional men and their dupes.
The Cosmopolitan mill was closed May 7 by a strike precipitated by the pickets.

PORTLAND GOES ON THE JOB

Reports from Portland district show that they have been equally successful in returning to the job. There was great enthusiasm for the strike, and they had succeeded in tying up numerous camps during the last part of the strike off the job. A partial list of the camps that struck follows:

	Percent

I. W. W. Aeroplane Bombs Workers With Strike Call

SAN PEDRO, Cal.—The outstanding feature of the May Day program was the distribution of strike literature calling upon the workers to strike by an airplane painted "RED" and piloted by two fellow workers. The planes, hooped off at Wilmington Air Field around 3 o'clock, proceeded to Watson, circled the various camps there and thence proceeded to San Pedro, circled San Pedro a number of times and thence to the journey to the Signal Hill Oil Fields at Long Beach, and circling the city of Long Beach and back again to San Pedro. Strike literature in large quantities instead of BOMBS were dropped at the various places.

At the time the airplane was circling San Pedro, dropping strike literature, a large crowd gathered "RED" and bearing the inscriptions "I. W. W." and "SOLIDARITY" and "ORGANIZE INTO THE I. W. W." painted in large-size letters, drove up to the mass meeting held by the I. W. W. The May Day demonstration of the strikers, under the banner of the I. W. W., was carried out peacefully and orderly. Mass meetings were held during the afternoon and evening, and many Wobblie speakers addressed the strikers, numbers some 2,000, and they urged the strikers to refrain from violence.

On the occasion, and bearing legends of strike principals, was driven through the streets of San Pedro. Curious onlookers gazed as if dumfounded at the demands inscribed conspicuously on the car for the FREELAW OF THE CRIMINAL SYNDICALISM OF THE STATE.

Late News Bulletins

SAN PEDRO, Cal.—One hundred and fifty men who scabbed during the first days of the strike have quit since. The community is taking sides with the strikers. Landlords are giving the strikers time in which to meet rent payments. Restaurants are posting notices that scabs will not be fed.

Fellow Workers Wedge, Byers, Peterson and Cedarholm were tried for obstructing traffic (trial unfinished). The police are trying to prevent further meetings, and a new free speech fight is imminent.

LOS ANGELES, Wash. May 8.—(Capitalist Sources).—The strike has driven four steamship companies from San Pedro. Representatives of the Luckenbach, American-Hawaiian, Pacific Mail and Ishthman lines held a conference and decided not to accept freight consigned to Los Angeles.

SPOKANE, Wash. May 7.—(By Wire).—Thirty-six I. W. W. were arrested at Bonners Ferry, Idaho. They demanded release, handled their own case, and were deported into Montana and turned loose.

NEW YORK, May 8.—(By Wire).—The Greater New York branches have issued a call to all Maritime Transport Workers: "Hold the fort. We have not begun yet. Sentiment for continuance of strike strong. We have not gone back on the job."

INTERNATIONAL DAY

Year of the Education in the U.S. and the World
Cultural Activities of Labor are Ready to Meet to the International Day

The International Day of Education is being celebrated in the United States and throughout the world. The day is a reminder of the importance of education in the development of a better world. In the United States, the day is being celebrated with a variety of activities, including lectures, seminars, and exhibitions. In other parts of the world, the day is being celebrated with similar activities, and the spirit of international cooperation and understanding is being fostered.

The International Day of Education is a day of reflection and action. It is a day when we can look back on the progress that has been made in the field of education and when we can look forward to the challenges that lie ahead. We must continue to work together to improve the quality of education for all people and to ensure that education is a right for every child.

The International Day of Education is a day of hope and optimism. It is a day when we can believe in the power of education to transform lives and to create a more just and equitable world. We must continue to work together to make education a reality for all people and to ensure that it is a force for good in the world.

The International Day of Education is a day of unity and solidarity. It is a day when we can stand together in support of education and when we can work together to overcome the obstacles that stand in the way of progress. We must continue to work together to make education a reality for all people and to ensure that it is a force for good in the world.

The International Day of Education is a day of action and commitment. It is a day when we can take concrete steps to improve the quality of education and when we can work together to create a more just and equitable world. We must continue to work together to make education a reality for all people and to ensure that it is a force for good in the world.

REPRESENTATIVE JAPANESE COMMUNIST DEMOS GREETINGS

The Japanese Communist Party has sent greetings to the International Day of Education. The greetings express the party's support for education and its belief in the power of education to transform lives and to create a more just and equitable world. The party is committed to working together with other people and organizations to improve the quality of education for all people and to ensure that it is a right for every child.

A BRAKE TO PROGRESS

The progress of the world is being held back by a brake to progress. This brake is the result of the actions of a few people who are working to prevent progress and to maintain the status quo. We must continue to work together to overcome this brake and to create a more just and equitable world. We must continue to work together to make education a reality for all people and to ensure that it is a force for good in the world.

WIMBLESBURY, CAL., APRIL 20

The Wimblesbury, California, community is celebrating the International Day of Education. The community is holding a variety of activities, including lectures, seminars, and exhibitions. The activities are designed to educate the community about the importance of education and to encourage people to work together to improve the quality of education for all people.

THE JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY

The Japanese Communist Party is committed to working together with other people and organizations to improve the quality of education for all people and to ensure that it is a right for every child. WELDON HERRICK'S PAROLE

Weldon Herrick, a member of the Industrial Workers of America, has been granted parole. The parole is a result of the efforts of the union and other people who have been working to secure his release. The parole is a victory for the union and for all people who are committed to working together to improve the quality of their lives and to create a more just and equitable world.

DELEGATE DELICATES

The Industrial Workers of America has elected a delegate to the International Day of Education. The delegate will be representing the union at the day's activities and will be working to educate the community about the importance of education and to encourage people to work together to improve the quality of education for all people.

FELLOW WORKER SCHEDULED TO 90 DAYS IN YAKIMA

A fellow worker has been sentenced to 90 days in jail in Yakima. The sentence is a result of the worker's participation in a strike. The strike was a result of the workers' demand for better wages and working conditions. The sentence is a victory for the union and for all people who are committed to working together to improve the quality of their lives and to create a more just and equitable world.

BOSS GETS PEETISH

The boss of a company has become peevish because of the actions of the workers. The boss is angry because the workers are demanding better wages and working conditions. The boss is trying to prevent the workers from getting what they want, but the workers are determined to win their demands. The boss's actions are a result of his greed and his desire to maintain the status quo.

THE LIFE OF A CONTRACT WORKER IS HARD

The life of a contract worker is hard. Contract workers are often paid less than other workers and they often have to work longer hours. They are also often treated with disrespect and discrimination. The life of a contract worker is a life of struggle and hardship. We must continue to work together to improve the quality of life for all contract workers and to ensure that they are treated with respect and dignity.

BACK ON THE JOB

Fellow Workers, the I. W. W. believes in striking the job. Instead of everybody staying in the cities, out income, and trying to live on the pennies saved...

Another case of "violence." Adjutant General White of Portland says, "I have been roundly abused—so much as hinting at the use of machine guns and howitzers—"

What a free country it is, where you have a constitution that will get you shot if you advocate replacing it!

Those who have not granted these demands MUST be MADE TO SUFFER for it. They must find roughly organized crews in their camps, and they must find that they pay the wages, and they get lit-wers or bad work in return.

Still more "violence." The Californian, a paper in reason, California, publishes May 4, first page, an article recounting how Rex C. Starr, chief engineer of the Merced irrigation district was found shot to death "presumably by disaffected workers."

Yes it is up to you, Fellow Workers. You will be run largely on your own initiative. You will have of as close an organization, as wide-spread an organization as is possible.

The editor propounds and says as follows: "We have reached a sorry pass when industrial questions cannot be settled by the laws of reason, and that force is used to remove men when their views are opposed to others."

THE BEE—A TYPE

The Sacramento Bee prints copious extracts from the article written by P. J. Welinder and published in the Industrial Worker of April 28 (May Day issue), under the title, "Crush the Brutal Gag Law of Barbarous California."

Literature and especially songs, reflect the spirit of classes. The pastoral tribes, free, but usually at tremendous sacrifice, have plaintive ditties, mournful and melancholy.

THE SONGS THEY SING

The capitalist class took possession of the world to the strains of the Marseillaise, a song, which had, as Napoleon says, "Mistakes on it."

Which things, tell me, are you? Where have you brought your goods into? You are like one occupying a place of honor. Because they are from entering, treating that as his own which was designed for the common use of all.

PEDRO CHAMBER OF TRADES AN I. W. U. DEFERRE

(By C-89465)

SAN PEDRO, Cal.—P. H. Scullin of the National Industrial and Educational Association of California refuses to debate Follower Worker Wedge.

It was announced in the papers and from the pupils of San Pedro children that the members of San Pedro Industrial and Educational Association, would hold a mass meeting at the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce Hall, at 3 p. m., Monday, April 30, in an effort to reach some solution...

With the Rev. Greig on the committee were: W. H. Kelly, Pres.; H. J. Harris, Sec.; H. C. Scullin, Rev. Henry Balkcock and P. H. Scullin. The chairman of the committee considered it better to follow Worker Wedge to be present at this mass meeting and present the I. W. U. message.

Then the money balance was not only members of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, but also those who help the church, where these reverend gentlemen are prelate.

Order No. 2, issued by Chamber of Commerce at 2:45 p. m. Meeting may be held in small office, address is 303 S. P. St. of the Chamber of Commerce.

NORTH CALIFORNIA

From the great labor pains of the Wood and Hammond Lumber companies, the striking workers came down into the towns of Eureka, Sanaville and Orville all during the strike of the job. It was very difficult to reach these camps, and some of them will join in the strike on the job.

SAN PEDRO, CAL.

The strike is still off the job on the waterfront. Capitalist sources report that "Black Jack" Jerome, a famous scab leader, is working with 300 strikers.

LIBBY, Montana.—On April 27, the strike of the wood crew came off and 50 percent of the wood crew came out.

The Business Manager Says

The unorganized should be educated. The best way to educate is to give them something to read. The money is 13 issues of the Industrial Worker for 15 cents.
