

The working class and the employing class have nothing in common. There is no royal road to riches, and the few who make up the employing class go all the good things of life.

Between these two classes a struggle must go on until the workers of the world have organized as a class, have taken possession of the earth and the machinery of production, and have reduced the management of industries into fewer and fewer hands, making the trade unions unable to cope with the ever growing power of the employing class. The trade unions today represent a state of affairs which allows capitalist workers to be pitted against another set of workers in the same industry.

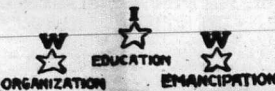

Thereby helping defeat one another in wage wars. Moreover, the trade unions aid the employing class to mislead the workers into the belief that the working class have interests in common with their employers, and that the working class have interests in common with the interest of the working class upheld.

These conditions can be changed and the interest of the working class upheld.

only by an organization formed in such a way that all its members in any one industry, or in all industries, if necessary, cease work when any strike or lockout is on in any department thereof, thus making an injury to one an injury to all.

Instead of the conservative motto, "A fair day's wages for a fair day's work," we must inscribe on our banner a revolutionary slogan—"Abolition of the wage system."

It is the historic mission of the working class to do away with capitalism. The army of production must be organized, not only for the every-day struggle with capitalism, but also to carry on production when capitalism shall have been overthrown. By organizing industrially we are forming the structure of the new society within the shell of the old.

STRUGGLE GOES ON AGAINST VILE LAW

SAN PEDRO SHIPPING MASTERS HAD A LESSON IN TACTICS ANOTHER ONE COMING

Millions of feet of lumber stayed in San Pedro harbor for a month during the marine strike, while hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of material, oil shipments were delayed; freight of all kinds lay idle in the streets. One hundred ships in all clustered up the channels and the open shipyard and lumber interests had to forego more than $1,000,000 in profits, according to the most conservative estimates.

But these same open shop interests brought the strike to its premature end. The sailors and longshoremen at San Pedro were dissuaded and returned to work. The law is still on the statute books because these shipping and lumber interests aided and abetted the strike. It is still a prominent liberal to repeat it this spring.

The strike of protest against the law was as efficiently conducted without violence. It also had the general support of the community as the donation list of 50 merchants and other small business men grows. NOT A SINGLE ACT OF VIOLENCE WAS CHARGED AGAINST THE 600 STRIKERS arrested in Chief Cook's roundup of "idle men." The union today has three times its former membership and enjoys the respect of the community more than ever before.

Keeping these members of the Industrial Workers of the World "black-listed" or shipyard employment agency in San Pedro is getting more pay. But the chief grievance still remains. The syndicalism law is still alive and 53 good union men are serving one to fourteen year terms.

of the servant of the Shipowners, Merchants and Manufacturers, C. O. and interested in $4884 have Judge Paul C. McCormick on the bench.

The shipyard here can use painters for a short time and the Palos Verdes Estates will start to grade streets and roads so No. 310 can be placed on the map here as well as No. 510. If enough pressure can be exerted this summer in this port we will be allowed to have our own hall without interference.

The Civil Liberty Union will have speakers in this port in a few days, as an open forum is to be inaugurated at the Saturday meeting. The public is very interested in what the I. W. W. has to say here and with the opening of the open forum where all questions will be discussed it will start the flame to burning that never can be put out.

SAN PEDRO, June 6.—Liberty Hill still continues to serve its purpose and deserves its name. From the tip of the gavel of salvation to the tip of the gavel of condemnation, almost every night. Last night we had a Spanish meeting with about 600 in attendance, through their necessity, developed from mere card men into militant, active, sympathetic and their audience spellbound for two hours and a half. A number of line-ups were, as usual, in attendance, active, sympathetic and their audience spellbound for two hours and a half. A number of line-ups were, as usual, in attendance, active, sympathetic and their audience spellbound for two hours and a half.

The boys have managed to get enough work directly from the ships to enable them to buy their own clothes and an overhauling of the ship.

The captains and mates are getting thoroughly disgusted with the delay and expense of having their ships loaded and unloaded by incompetent scabs. It is estimated that 69 have been seriously injured since April 25. We have been able to verify over 40 of these cases but could not touch for the full number mentioned.

The work of organization continues and for the few who have left enough new ones have been lined up to maintain the strength of the I. W. W. in Los Angeles County at not less than 1500, and probably more. Meetings are held and 10,000 pieces of literature have been distributed during the past week.

PREPARING IN PORTLAND TO MAKE DEMONSTRATION

PORTLAND, June 6.—The joint branches at this city are preparing for a demonstration against the syndicalism law. The purpose of the motion is to carry on the agitation for a strike to complete the work of the syndicalism law. The purpose of the motion is to carry on the agitation for a strike to complete the work of the syndicalism law.

"That we go on record to agitate for a protest strike some time in the future, and to defend all class-war and political prisoners and to defend the working class the world over." The purpose of the motion is to carry on the agitation for a strike to complete the work of the syndicalism law.

The matter of just how and where the strike is called is a matter that can be easily solved by a little discussion. The big question is to defend the class interest, not the individual interest.

The branch also decided to make a demonstration in favor of the release of the prisoners at this time of President Harding's visit to Portland and to ask branches of other cities through which he passes to take like action.

CEDEVILLE, Wash.—National Logging Co. camp. Walls closed Saturday.

1. Release of all Class War Prisoners.

2. Release of all Class War Prisoners.

3. Fifty cent raise on the rigging, except on the hook house.

4. No less than eight shower baths to the cook house.

5. No fly more than one choker out on a camp.

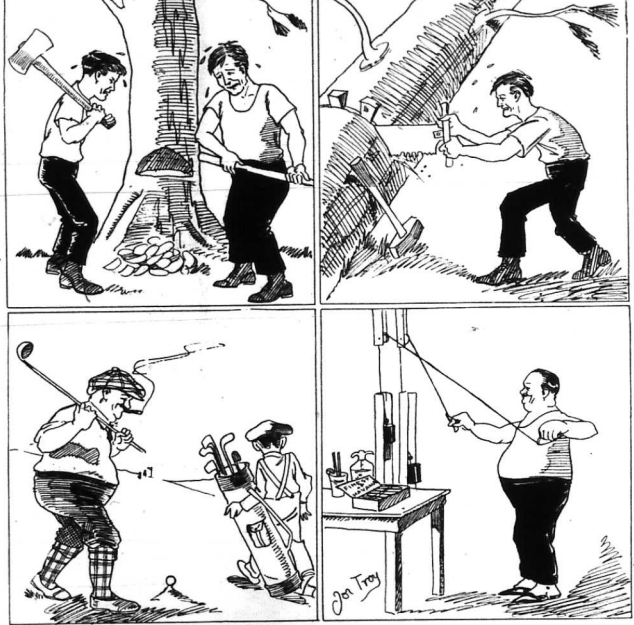

6. No discrimination against any member of the I. W. W. and bump check. Fellow workers get on the job and use job action.

7. It is a matter of fact that Friday we started to hold a meeting at the meeting closed so we waited until the next morning and held our meeting at Cedarville.—(Del. 11-7-23)

ATTEMPT TO DISCREDIT CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION

IGNOMINIOUSLY FAILED

Alarmed by the growth in popularity of the Los Angeles branch of the American Civil Liberties Union since the unlawful arrest of Upton Sinclair on May 15, an attempt has been made to discredit the Union by calling it a branch of the General Defense Committee of the I. W. W., according to information received from Sinclair.

Townsend and Times Are Both Fraud

Through a man called Townsend who claims to be an agent of the Department of Justice, the name of the I. W. W. was used by the district attorney's office working for the Merchants and Manufacturers Association, a statement in the Times, carrying the statement was made in the Los Angeles Times that the American Civil Liberties Union was a branch of the General Defense Committee. Although this statement was denied by the local officers of the American Civil Liberties Union and confirmed by the Los Angeles branch of the Department of Justice, the statement was repeated in the Times, carrying Townsend's signature with the article.

Communication with Townsend revealed that there was "no employee of the Bureau of Investigation in Los Angeles who was employed in connection with the labor-party business because of his frame-up and perjured testimony in the Sacramento and other cases where I. W. W. members have been charged with criminal syndicalism."

The capitalist press has worked up popular prejudice against the Marine Transport Workers Union thought to capitalize this prejudice and the legal status of the I. W. W. under the state syndicalism law against the Civil Liberties Union which has been fighting the rights of the strikers.

NEGROES USE ECONOMIC POWER

NEW YORK.—The migration of thousands of Negroes northward from the Southern states is characterized as in fact a strike against intolerable living conditions, low wages, poor schools, injustice in the courts, the brutalities of the Jim Crow schools and lynching by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

"Recognition of this fact," said James Weldon Johnson, secretary of the association, "is coming from the white people themselves. In Alabama and Mississippi they are belatedly taking about giving the Negroes some share in the distribution of educational funds. In Florida the lumbermen are planning a campaign for better treatment of the Negroes in the lower courts and other reforms."

The Negro exodus from the south is speedily bringing about a virtual revolution in the sectional southern attitude.

"It is the migration the Negroes are bringing into play the economic power of their labor, which is naturally more effective than any mere appeal to sentiment."

The duty of a "Goblin" in the K. K. Klux Klan is not well understood by those who are not members, but according to the news that comes from Houston, Texas, Geo. W. Kinch, Jr., who had been proscribed in that office thought his duty was just that, and now the Houston Klan has proscribed him for $24,000 of the Klan funds.

VANZETTI IS INNOCENT

HAD PREJUDICED TRIAL IS STATEMENT OF DEBS

(Eugene V. Debs recently visited Bartolomeo Vanzetti in Charlestown prison in Massachusetts. Vanzetti is a defendant with Nicola Sacco on charges of having held up and killed a paymaster in Ditcham street years ago. The charge was made primarily because of the connection of the defendants with labor organizations, not because there was any real proof of guilt. After the visit Debs issued the following statement.)

"After visiting Vanzetti at the State prison with his lawyer, Mr. Fred H. Moore, and other comrades, and after a personal interview with that much persecuted prisoner, I am more than ever convinced of his absolute innocence of the crime for which he was convicted. I am confident that the same is true of Sacco, whom I was unable to see personally because of lack of time during my limited stay in Boston.

"It seems to me impossible to know Vanzetti personally, as I feel that I know him, and associate him with the commission of a crime, especially a crime so heinous as the one with which he was charged.

"There is a striking analogy between the case of Sacco and Vanzetti and that of Joseph and his brothers. The latter were deliberately framed and convicted on perjured testimony and it seems incredible that they are still held for criminals. There is only one reason for this, and that is the nature of their activities at the time of their arrest.

"All these men are of the working class and each of them bears testimony to his loyal devotion to his fellow workers. Had it not been for such connections, I am convinced that Sacco and Vanzetti would have been arrested. The crime with which they were charged afforded the opportunity to associate them with it and to arouse public sentiment against them to such an extent that a fair trial was absolutely impossible.

"Since that time there has been a clearing of the atmosphere and certain revelations have been made which show that these men are victims of a grave injustice, and that they are today suffering the penalties of

TWENTY-EIGHT MEN

FACE A. JUDGE

CANNOT PROTECT INTERESTS DENIED DEFENDANT'S RIGHTS OF ARGUMENT AND MOTION

LOS ANGELES, June 6.—The trial of the 28 started Monday the 4th in Court 12 before Judge McCormick. So far no jurors have been chosen nor any peremptory challenges used.

Fellow Worker Tom Galway, as previous reported, was dismissed on motion of the prosecution for lack of sufficient evidence. It does not allow them while examining the Los Angeles county lately to charge such men with criminal syndicalism and hold them in their jails for months awaiting trial even the prosecution knows the most prejudiced jury could not possibly convict.

This is done for the evident purpose of impressing upon an ignorant jury the spurious appearance that the prosecution attorney is so ill-wily and fair that he would not want to jeopardize the liberty of anyone who might have the good fortune that the authorities of this notorious, lawless county are only after blood-thirsty, dynamite-throwing revolutionists.

From all reports coming to this office it seems that Judge McCormick can't realize that these men, while they are defending themselves, have all an attorney's privilege. He does not allow them while examining the jury to make any motions, consult with each other or argue any point. He goes out from the prospective jurors, might possibly remark by any of the defendants which, by being especially impressed upon the minds of the prospective jurors, might possibly create some prejudice.

It is possible that he cannot separate a defendant from a convict, or from an attorney, and that this is just a mere experience for him, under which he does not know how to act.

EMPIRE IS MAINTAINED FOR THE 300 PER CENT

LAHORE, India.—Twelve cents a day in 1917 and revolting 300 per cent in the case of the 300,000 coal miners in India. The workers of India. The appeal, which appears in The Nation of Lahore, a Federated newspaper, is as follows:

"The Indian miner gets six annas (12 cents) a day in wages. His wage is only one-tenth the value of his output. The enormous profits made out of his blood and sweat go to swell the dividends of shareholders (British) owned companies.

"The lives led the miners and the lives of semi-slavery, prostitution in the coal fields in the coal fields because the men and women are victims of poverty-stricken, starvation and destitute.

"The hovel in which the miners live are insanitary, filthy boxes. The food they eat is a handful of rice and dal (a sweet substitute found in some fields in the coal fields is germinant. More than 300,000 live under these barbarous conditions."

The Trade Union Congress points to the scores of thousands of deaths from cholera among the scabbed colliers on the tea plantations, where the corporations show 300 per cent profit.

"As a result of the exploitation of our workers, the annual death toll from cholera every year of starvation and millions of disease since their half-starved bodies can offer no resistance. The infant death rate mounted up not long ago in Bombay to 880 deaths per 1,000 children under one year of age."

The appeal points out that over 60 per cent of India's revenue is spent by the British government to maintain the military system.

a crime with which they should never have been charged. We who have had more or less similar experience also know that it is to question the despotic power that rules American industry and politics, realizing that the American people are men and we are therefore with our heart and hand, shall not abate in our interest, but we shall continue to fight until justice is finally meted out to them and they stand forth in good time, free and vindicated before the world's eyes. (Eugene V. Debs, Boston, Mass., May 11, 1923.)

INDUSTRIAL DYNAMITE PEDDED TO WORKMEN

From Amador (Jackson) Dispatch (The I. W. W. organization has announced that it will be organizing a new world of scientific possibilities, should in sentiment, in ethics, be long to the black old days of the early nineteenth century?)

Yes, the Industrial Worker is being distributed free in various communities. It is also being paid for in various communities. More than that, we are getting ready to start sending the paper away 4000 a week, into California...

Is the Dispatch a henchman of the czar who was hurled off the throne of Russia in 1917? It was the czar and the system he stood for which wrecked Russia. In their anger the workers and peasants of the world have raised their voices against the one who had sown the seeds of their own misery...

Let us state the case plainly: The boss will not give the workers a cent more than they expect we are living wage. We cannot give them the food, clothing and shelter we produce, these to be the basis of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness...

One Big Union "Hundreds of thousands of workers in every civilized country are beginning to understand the principles of industrial unionism. They are speaking of the battle of today for better conditions for the final class in the future who will be the general class of non-producers and the central industrial power in the future of the world."

Co-operation A Hunch In any period of the ever prevailing industrial conflict, the inevitable, inalterable, single influence, here and elsewhere, is the cooperative movement.

Given the full product of his labor will be immune from exploitation, insofar as this would eliminate the parasitic class. The process we must note that it has been said, "craft unionism is the sole craft that tends to divide the working class..."

Thus, also, if the worker increases pay will take care of the cost of living; but if his wages are not raised, then his lack of economic power on the job is an invitation to the boss to slash the wages in order to increase the productivity of his cost of living he has obtained.

It is a question of economic power on the job. The best class to support the cooperative venture is to pull a program out of the hands of the capitalist class...

Craft unionism tends to establish an artificial barrier to the free movement of labor, but at the same time it establishes a condition on the labor world. It is a condition of the labor world with labor at large. It is a condition of the labor world with labor at large.

So labor is being robbed at both the point of consumption and the point of production. He must be getting pretty poor by this time and this considering the cooperative movement has been in the field only a short time...
